

PACIFIC GUARDIAN

OVERVIEW

Pacific Guardian is a purpose built cable maintenance ship, equipped with a remotely operated vehicle (ROV). Stationed in Curacao, the vessel provides repair and maintenance services for cable owners in the Atlantic Cable Maintenance Agreement (ACMA).

VESSEL

Builders	Swan Hunter Shipbuilders, Newcastle
Date built	1984
Flag	UK
Class	ABS. A1, AMS ACCU
Length overall	115.60m
Breadth moulded	18.00m
Designed draft	6.31m
Gross tonnage	6,133t
Maximum speed	14kts
Main engines	6
Bow thruster	1
Stern thruster	1
DP system	Converteam A-SERIES SIMPLEX DPS
Berths	80
Bollard pull	47t

COMMUNICATIONS

1 x SEATEL 4006. MTN Service Contract on KU Band.
 2 x Inmarsat – B
 1 x Inmarsat – C

CABLE TANKS

Main cable tanks	3
Outer diameter	2 x 13.00m, 1x 9.00m
Cone external diameter	3.00m
Maximum load per tank	1,700t

FUEL

Fuel capacity 630t MGO